Media Release

Supreme Court Ruling pending on Thursday, December 9th, Campaign Life Coalition will be there.

On Thursday, December 9, 2004, at 9:45a.m., The Supreme Court of Canada will release its response to the Liberal government's marriage reference. The Liberal government will review the opinion before deciding how to proceed. Media reports indicate that they intend to move quickly with their agenda.

Campaign Life Coalition (CLC) will be present at the Supreme Court on Thursday, when the ruling is released.

Jean Morse-Chevrier, CLC spokesperson, will be available to speak to media in both English and French. She may also be contacted through the CLC Public Affairs office in Ottawa, listed below.

Campaign Life Coalition stands firmly behind traditional marriage and will oppose any attempts to attack this fundamental pillar in our society.
