Life Chain to Draw Thousands into the Streets across Canada on Sunday, September 30, 2007

The National Life Chain will take place once again across Canada. On Sunday, September 30, 2007, thousands of Canadians will line the streets to profess their firm belief in the value of life from conception until natural death.

Participants will line the streets holding signs that read:

- ABORTION KILLS CHILDREN
- ADOPTION: THE LOVING OPTION
- ABORTION HURTS WOMEN
- JESUS FORGIVES AND HEALS

Life Chain is a peaceful, prayerful witness to the sanctity of Life. Participants are encouraged to pray during the hour while giving a visual statement that abortion is grievously wrong because it kills unborn children and harms women.
