2025 SUMMER INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

All interns will be expected to work full-time, unless otherwise discussed. Interns will rotate through various assignments and supervisors every 1-3 weeks, so that they can appreciate the breadth of the work that we do - from administrative tasks, to research projects, to writing for The Interim Newspaper, to assisting our political team, to helping organize Life Chain and 40 Days for Life campaigns, to creating social media content and engaging peers through CLC Youth, etc.

In addition, each intern will be expected to participate in weekly training sessions to learn more about pro-life apologetics and the many facets of the pro-life movement. To put this knowledge into practice, interns will also be encouraged to engage in weekly activism, under the leadership of experienced activists.

Interns may have the privilege of attending various events, conferences, and seminars on behalf of Campaign Life Coalition, and meeting various pro-life leaders, from both within CLC, and outside of it—such as Silent No More Awareness Campaign's Angelina Steenstra, Euthanasia Prevention Coalition's Alex Schadenberg, etc. If you're not sure which arm of the pro-life movement you're most drawn to (educational, political, pastoral, spiritual), or you want a taste of it all, this internship is for you.

To apply, email the following to maeve@campaignlifecoalition.com by Friday April 4 2025.
