WHAT IS LIFE CHAIN?

Life Chain is a prayerful witness to the sanctity of all human life. This peaceful and silent demonstration brings awareness to the ongoing injustice of abortion and the harm it inflicts on mothers, fathers, and the community at large. It is a simple but powerful reminder to our fellow citizens of our duty to defend the weakest members of our society.

The very first Life Chain was held in 1987 by a small pro-life group called Please Let Me Live Inc. in Yuba City, California and consisted of 2,500 people. The annual event grew by leaps and bounds in the following years – with almost 1,000,000 participants in 1992. Campaign Life Coalition brought Life Chain to Canada in 1990, and this event has continued every year since. It has saved lives, connected post-abortive parents to healing, and introduced countless individuals to the pro-life movement; for many, Life Chain is their first foray into pro-life activism, whether as children or adults. In 2021, there were over 270 Life Chains in Canada and over 10,000 are estimated to have participated from coast to coast despite the pandemic.

As usual, this year, Life Chain will be held on the first Sunday of October - October 2, 2022.

Please determine the location and time of your nearest Life Chain by visiting:

www.campaignlifecoalition.com/life-chain.

On the day of the event, those participating in Life Chain will stand at various predetermined intersections in silent prayer, holding non-graphic signs with slogans like, “Abortion kills children,” “Abortion hurts women,” “Adoption, the loving option,” and “Life, the first inalienable right.” The signs are distributed and collected by a local organizer at each intersection. This organizer will orient and space out Life Chain participants, and will talk to law enforcement and any media that may wish to cover the event.

Please contact your local organizer if you have any questions or concerns. Alternatively, you may contact the 2022 Life Chain Canada Committee (1-800-730-5358, lifecanada@campaignlifecoalition.com).
