

Mission & Vision

May 27th, 2013

Sex Positivity

- Recognition that sexuality is a central and important part of healthy personal identity and experience
- Individuals of all ages should have access to age-appropriate, accurate, and comprehensive knowledge about sexuality to make informed decisions about their bodies, behaviours, and relationships
- Celebration of sexual and gender diversities, including but not limited to sexual preferences, identities, orientations, as well as consensual relationships and/or sex acts, such as bondage/discipline, dominance/submission, sadism/masochism, and open and/or polyamorous (many-to-many) relationships or sex.