2018 Summer Student Internship

The summer internship program run by Campaign Life Coalition and The Interim Newspaper is designed to challenge and reward a select number of students with a unique opportunity to work full-time in the pro-life movement. This internship is designed to shape and form leaders by providing them with an in-depth opportunity to become active in the largest and oldest pro-life organization in Canada. All applicants must be attending a secondary or post-secondary institution for the 2018/2019 school term to qualify. Please read over the details provided below before applying.

Application Deadline: Friday, March 15th, 2018

Location: Campaign Life Coalition National Office. 104 Bond St, Toronto, ON, M5B 1X9 and off-site offices TBD.

Hours: Monday- Friday, 9am-5pm (unless otherwise discussed), 40 hours/week

Wage: Minimum ($12.25/hour)

Please note that CLC interns who are not from Toronto are responsible for finding/ paying for their own accommodations and travel arrangements. Assistance may be provided if necessary.

Internship Description:

All interns will be expected to work a full-time 40-hour work week engaging in a wide variety of tasks from administrative duties to street activism. Each intern will be expected to attend weekly training sessions to learn more about pro-life apologetics, strategizing, youth leadership, fundraising and other essential skills needed to work in the pro-life movement. Students will also be expected to participate in various conferences/ events CLC organizes or participates in throughout the summer months as representatives of this organization.

To apply, please fill out the attached Application Form/ Personal Reference Letter, along with a Cover Letter and Resume and send it to deny@campaignlifecoalition.com before Friday, March 15th, 2018.
